

LEGISLATORS MEET FOR BIG SESSION

ADMINISTRATION FACED WITH GRAVE OPPOSITION TO DEFENSE PROGRAM

FORCES ARRAYED FOR BATTLE ON BIGGEST ISSUE

President Wilson to Launch Preparedness Program in Message Tomorrow.

OPENING DAY IS FEATURED

Suffrage Folk in Capital in Force for Start of a Week's Convention

BIG TASKS CONFRONT LEGISLATORS

Session Expected to Be One of the Hardest in History; to Be Start of Campaign?

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The sixtieth congress convened at noon today. Certainty of determined and serious opposition to the administration defense program hung over the opening. Battle lines were drawn with the opening gavel.

Tomorrow the preparedness program will be formally launched by President Wilson in his opening address. The presence here of the democratic national committee, which tomorrow will select its time and place for the national convention, gave an unwelcome political aspect to the opening ceremonies.

Spectacular features, chilled by a bleak, raw day, were supplied by the suffragists' parade, with their mammoth petition. A band and escort of Atlantic City citizens in honor of Representative Bacharach was another enlivening feature.

In addition to the democratic national committee the congressional union of women voters began a week's convention, the National Red Cross was due Wednesday and the rivers and harbors convention is scheduled to meet the same day, bringing scores of prominent leaders to the capital.

Obstacles which threatened to tie up the opening sessions of the new congress today had been side-tracked. The cloture fight in the senate was postponed and a cut and dried program of organization preliminaries in both the senate and house prepared. Because of the illness of his wife, Vice President Marshall was not present to open the senate. Secretary Baker being substituted with Senator Clarke of Arkansas as chairman pro tempore.

Gallinger Leads Senate Republicans. The republican senators met in caucus before the opening and agreed on Senator Gallinger for president pro tem, making him again the republican leader.

There were the usual mammoth crowds in both senate and house galleries, representing the eyes of a hundred million Americans. Today's actual business was confined to the routine of swearing in new members, organization of both houses and notification of the president of the new legislative epoch.

As the gavel fell at the stroke of 12 at both ends of the capitol, officials and spectators were sobered by the gigantic tasks looming ahead. In the absence of Vice President Marshall, Secretary Baker presided in the senate and South Trimble, house clerk, in the lower body. Pending Speaker Clark's election, after the routine tasks both bodies adjourned until tomorrow to await the president's message, according to ancient and legal precedent.

Clark Re-elected. Champ Clark was today re-elected speaker of the house 221 to 194.

Socialists Represented. In the congressional elections in November, 1914, the democratic majority in the senate was increased from 13 to 16. In the house it was reduced from 143 to 25. The new senate lineup today was: Democrats, 56; republicans, 40. The new house: democrats, 229; republicans, 196; progressives, 7; socialists, 1; independent, 1; vacant, 1. The last house had 286 democrats, 125 republicans, 17 progressives and 1 independent. For the first time since the 62nd congress the socialist party was again represented today. Meyer London of New York being the member.

Re-election of President Wilson and continued democratic control of the nation's destinies was conceded.

POPE APPEALS FOR PEACE IN ADDRESS BEFORE CARDINALS

It Is Hoped Movement Will Be Started to End the World War

NATIONAL FEELING MIRROR

England, France and Germany Are Represented at Meeting by Cardinals

ROME, Dec. 6.—Pope Benedict's allocation to the consistory of cardinals today contained a stirring appeal for an early peace.

ROME, Dec. 6.—Pope Benedict today held in the consistorial hall one of the most important conclaves in the history of the church. From the allocation delivered to the cardinals by his holiness, it was hoped vatican circles would develop the moves that would bring on early end to the world war.

It was the first secret consistory of the present pope. He created his first cardinals, seven in all. The names of six of these were made public. The name of the seventh cardinal was reserved "in pectore," to be revealed by the pontiff later at his pleasure.

Only the bare outlines of Pope Benedict's address to the cardinals were known before the ceremonies opened with great pomp at 10 o'clock. It was known, however, that his holiness would exhort the cardinals to renewed efforts for peace and would detail at length the horrors of war.

From both Italian and visiting cardinals the vatican drew the sentiment of the principal nations at war before the Pope's allocation was completed. The consistory was attended largely by Italian cardinals, those from most of the foreign countries being unable to arrive on account of the war.

Principal Belligerents Represented. The principal belligerent nations, however, were represented. Cardinals Bourne and Gasquet arrived from England; Cardinal Cabrières from France and Cardinal Hartmann from Germany. It was considered certain that each of these brought with him the peace views of his government and that out of the exchange of ideas might spring the beginning of peace.

The six new cardinals created today whose names were made public are:

Monsignor Giulio Tonti, nuncio at Lisbon.

Monsignor Alfonso Marie Mistrangelo, archbishop of Florence.

Monsignor Giovanni Cagliero, nuncio for the Central American states.

Monsignor Andreas Furwirth, Austrian by birth, nuncio at Munich.

Monsignor Raffaele Scapinelli, nuncio at Vienna.

Monsignor Giorgio Gusmini, archbishop of Bologna.

These appointments diminish the unprecedented majority of cardinals in the college, the representation now being twenty-nine Italians and thirty-one foreigners.

Formal announcement was also made and family at Dalhart, Tex.

PASTORS PROTEST ALLEGED ATHEISM IN "U" LECTURES

Baptist Pastor Writes President Van Hise Opposing Philosophical Teachings of Prof. Max C. Otto

COURSE IS "PHILOSOPHY 25"

Pastors Object to Method of Comparing Evolutionary Doctrine with Biblical Story of Creation

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 6.—Rev. J. W. Morgan, university pastor of the Baptist church here, today refused to make public a letter he has addressed to President Charles H. Van Hise of the university, charging Professor Max C. Otto with teaching atheism. President Van Hise would not reveal the nature of his correspondence with Rev. M. Morgan.

Study Evolutionary Theory. The course to which Rev. Morgan objects is known as "philosophy 25". Its topic is "The Relation of Man to Nature". Darwin, Haeckel, Spencer, Agassiz, Mill, Huxley and other philosophers are read, and their views compared to the creation story told in the Bible. The arguments stated on each side of every problem brought up are stated sympathetically, it is said.

For several sessions "philosophy 25" has been under criticism by the university pastors. Asked what their attitude would be in regard to Rev. Morgan's criticism, several of them declared they would back the student pastor. It was denied, however, that their organization has taken up the matter officially.

From a member of the university faculty who asked to remain anonymous the following statement was obtained:

"The question at issue is simple. Are the university professors or the university pastors who have formed an iron ring at the foot of the campus going to prescribe the courses that shall be taught in the university?"

"This criticism has been growing. It is Otto now. He is just the first. There are others who will be gotten if they find they can get him. 'I don't believe that the university will surrender under fire. What I fear is that later Otto will be asked to drop the course.'

Otto Will Not Submit. "He won't do that. He is one of those men who would be so hampered by the feeling that he was not free to teach philosophy without a censorship that he would leave the university."

"Then the censorship would grow. I know Otto doesn't want to be made a martyr. What I fear is that the authorities will offer some 'reasonable compromise which he will be unreasonable enough not to accept.'

HOME RULE MEASURE KILLED

DENVER, Col., Dec. 6.—The Colorado supreme court today knocked out Denver's home rule amendment by which the liquor interests in this city hoped to continue the saloons after the statewide prohibition law goes into effect January 1. Local liquor licenses extending beyond that date were ordered revoked.

Total, 1917, estimates	$1,285,857,808.16
Total 1916 appropriations	$1,115,004,194.55

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The government of the United States wants a billion and a quarter dollars for running expenses in 1917.

This estimate today was transmitted to congress by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo.

The total reaches the tremendous sum of $1,285,857,808.16. Deducting the sinking fund of $60,727,000 put away for the redemption of bonds and the estimated postal receipts of $316,364,879, the administration's estimate of the cost of running the government is $908,765,929.16 in 1917.

STARTS TO DRIVE FLIVVER TO MABEL ON RAILWAY TRACK

When Andrew Johnson left his home in Mabel, Minn., yesterday evening, he chose the straightest route—the railroad tracks. His flivver was making pretty good time up through the Milwaukee road yards when a switch-engine stopped just in time to avoid being run over and the crew stopped Andrew.

They called the police, and Andrew this morning told the judge how anxious he was to get home. He paid $17.50 fine and costs, and left for Mabel by the regular wagon-bridge route about noon.

BANGOR TO SEND BIG DELEGATION TO BOARD SUPPER

Twenty-five Will Attend Six O'clock Affair at Y. M. C. A. Tomorrow Secretary Writes

Secretary Frank B. Gessler of the Bangor Commercial club today notified Secretary Van Auker of the La Crosse Board of Trade that twenty-five members of the Bangor association will attend the six o'clock supper of the local board at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow night. The Bangor delegation is coming in response to an invitation extended by President E. S. Hebbard when he and a number of La Crosse business men were guests at a banquet of the Bangor club last month.

It is expected that the Bangor men will carry away a good opinion of the interest of the city in the board of trade, for a large attendance is expected at the board's supper tomorrow.

The new constitution and bylaws of the board will be submitted for adoption, and other important subjects will be discussed.

This is nearly $9 for every man, woman and child in the United States.

The estimates are an increase of $167,831,401.61 over 1916 appropriations. Increases in the war and navy departments account for $146,857,235.32 of this amount.

The European war, entailing new work, was directly responsible for a large part in the increase in the state department estimates.

Details of the defense program are showing in the war and navy department's estimate as follows:

War department—Pay of the army increased from $49,366,732 to $63,706,397; supplies, service and transportation, from $38,452,679 to $56,382,792; medical department, from $750,000 to $1,164,105; engineering and equipment from $48,000 to $660,000; ordnance stores, $100,000 to $3,383,000; manufacture of arms, from $250,000 to $1,012,559; ordnance stores and supplies, from $1,000,000 to $4,757,500; automatic machine rifles, from $150,000 to $1,400,000; armored motor cars, from $50,000 to $15,000; for encampments and militia maneuvers, from $250,000 to $4,390,000.

An increase from $6,060,078 to $23,305,123 is shown in the coast and other defense fortifications.

New works include: Sites for fortifications and sea coast defenses, $1867,000; armaments, $2,486,500; ammunition, $2,711,000; sea coast defense cannon, $1,764,000; ammunition, $3,000,000.

Totals for canal zone fortifications show an increase from $2,639,048 to $8,234,100.

Naval Expenditures

For the first year's work on the navy building program for hulls, outfits and machinery of two battle-ships, two battle cruisers, three scout cruisers, fifteen destroyers, two gunboats, one hospital ship and one fuel oil ship, an estimate of $27,647,000 is made. For the hulls and outfits for the torpedo boat flotilla of five fleet submarines and twenty-five coast submarines, $7,765,000 is estimated; $8,000,000 is estimated for reserve ammunition.

Toward the erection and equipment of a plant for the manufacture of armor on a site to be selected by the president, to cost when completed, not to exceed $6,635,107, there is

RUMANIAN MENACE PROMPTS MOVEMENT OF GERMAN TROOPS

Kaiser Sends Division to Frontier When Bucharest Starts Concentration

FOREIGN SHIPPING TO BE HELD

The Move Adds to the Perplexity of the Stand of the Country

BERLIN, via Wireless to Sayville, L. I., Dec. 6.—That the Serbs and Montenegrins have at least temporarily halted the Teutonic offensive along the Montenegrins and Albanian frontiers was indicated by this afternoon's official statement. The war office spoke of attacks, by Montenegrin and Serbian detachments south of Syenitzna and east of Ipek, but said the attacks were repulsed.

ATHENS, Dec. 6.—The 105th German division has been rushed to Rustchuk presumably to meet Rumanian concentration near that point and to repel an expected movement of Russian troops. Greek military authorities received word today that Germany is sending heavy artillery to the Rumanian border from the western front.

The Rumanian order commandeering all foreign shipping in Rumanian ports, "in the interests of the national defense," was scheduled to go into effect today. It was expected to give rise to trouble at once along the Danube if Rumanian authorities seize Austro-Hungarian or Bulgarian cargo boats carrying munitions.

Well informed circles here did not consider the Rumanian move as sufficient evidence that Rumania is to enter the war with the allies, but admitted the Bucharest attitude was most puzzling.

Constantine Acquiescent? King Constantine, it was reliably reported today, is about to assure the allies that their demands will be granted in full. Greece may not openly state her position to the world, but the assurances will be of such definite nature as to remove all doubt in London and Paris.

Since Serbian troops retreated into Greek territory last week after the fall of Monastir no word of their movements has reached Athens in press dispatches. It is declared positively, however, that the Serbs have been allowed to retain their arms and are making their way along the frontier to join the Anglo-French forces. Only minor clashes with the Teutonic advance guards are now marking the Serbian retirement into Albania. The most severe fighting in the Balkans is going on south of Plevlje. In this region the fierce resistance of the Montenegrins is reported to have checked the Austrian invasion.

Serbs Join Anglo-French. London, Dec. 6.—Part of the Serb forces that retreated from Monastir across the Greek border have joined the Anglo-French expeditionary forces, according to news agency dispatches from Salonika.

RUSSIA TO CALL 1917 CLASS

LONDON, Dec. 6.—Nineteen-year-old youths, constituting the class of 1917 will be called to the colors in Russia early next year, according to Petrograd dispatches today.

BABY CONTENTERS IN THE TRIBUNE'S SHOWER OF GOLD ELECTION

Watch for the pictures of the Tribune's "Shower of Gold" babies each day. Three more little faces will appear tomorrow and each day thereafter for several weeks.

HELEN SMITH

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Galesville, proud parents of this darling daughter, have a chip on their shoulder in the Shower of Gold election. They are working hard and intelligently to make Baby Smith a winner, and a glance at the returns shows with what fine results so far.

EVELYN MUNDACK

Here is candidate who for the past ten months has been a candidate for showers of praise and kisses. You see Evelyn is just that old. She resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mundsack, at De Soto, where her popularity is winning her strong support.

RALPH P. MATTHIESON

Isn't Ralph a "dandy"? His parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Matthieson, Onalaska, started but a week ago to win honor and gold for this little general, but already they are in the race and going at a rate that promises to give a good account of their case, if they keep it up.

WILBUR BELL

Wilbur is the son of Mrs. Lizzie Bell of West Salem. Since Wilbur has no father, Mrs. Emma Meyer is helping mamma handle this campaign, and she has enlisted a lot of co-workers in her effort to see to it that Wilbur's claims are heard, so we may hear good reports of this canvass.

RICHARD A. MARKHAM

One can't help feeling that all independence is interested in the candidacy of this lovely son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Markham of that village. With so attractive and sturdy a candidate, the parents and their friends have an excellent opportunity to pile up votes for Richard.

SALTZ LOSES IN COMMISSION CASE HE WILL APPEAL

A jury in Police Judge C. W. Hunt's court returned a verdict for the defendant, Mrs. Ingeborg Jensen of Mormon coulee, in an action started by J. E. Saltz, north side real estate agent, for a commission alleged to be due on a land contract which he claims he had with her.

Saltz claimed that he had a forty day contract with Mrs. Jensen to sell her farm in Mormon coulee, for which he was to receive a commission of 2 1/2 per cent, no matter who sold the farm. Mrs. Jensen later sold the farm and refused to pay Saltz, it is alleged. There was no contract. An appeal will be taken to circuit court by Mr. Saltz, through his attorney, Thomas Morris.

BRITISH RETIRE FROM BAGDAD IS INDIAN STATEMENT

LONDON, Dec. 6.—General Townshend's forces that marched northward toward Bagdad are now retiring toward their base at Kut-El-Amara, about 100 miles southeast of Bagdad, it was officially admitted by the India office Saturday afternoon.

The TRIBUNE'S Daily Short Story

HOW MISS NELLIE MANAGED IT

BY JANE OSBORN

(Copyright, 1915, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

It was closing time at Henri's hairdressing establishment, and Blanche and Sadie, the youngest and most piquant of those who wielded curling irons and hairbrushes for Monsieur Henri, were getting ready to leave for the day. Blanche was pulling on her gloves, while Sadie was putting the last dab of powder on her small nose.

"Henri would be furious if he saw how we are leaving things," Blanche laughed, looking around at the blue and gray interior of the hairdressing booth. "Maybe we ought to stop to straighten things up. Only I did want to get home by half-past six. I'm going out tonight."

"So'm I," confided Sadie, turning her back on the irons and combs left out of place and following Blanche out of the booth to the hall. "Never mind, Miss Nellie will fix up for us."

"She doesn't care when she gets home," Sadie consoled herself and her companion. "If she were young it would be different. When a girl's got a fellow it's different. Then she has to quit on time."

Miss Nellie—whose matronly build at 30 made her seem to Blanche and Sadie somewhere in the middle-age class, and, of course, much too old for beaux—too old, in fact, to object to staying in the shop to clean up after they had gone home—happened to overhear the last remark.

Miss Nellie was a blonde and extremely capable. She had been in Henri's employ for over ten years, ever since she had come to him, timid, inexperienced and slender, as an underpaid apprentice to learn the trade. Exact customers never forgot her. To the fastidious among Henri's clientele she was famed for "the best wave in town." If you were dressing for an informal dinner at home or a reception where you would not remove your hat, you were content to have Blanche or Sadie or one of the others attend you. If you were going to be married, about to make your debut, were dressing for the ambassador's ball or expected to make a conquest you insisted on having Miss Nellie. And usually you had to telephone ahead of time to get her, so full was her date book.

In return for her superior service Miss Nellie received a few more dollars a week than Sadie or Blanche and—what counted to Miss Nellie for considerably more—she was known by Monsieur Henri not as simple Nellie, but as Miss Nellie, and customers, realizing her importance, never let off the respected prefix.

"When a girl's got a fellow it's different," she repeated rather regretfully as she went into the booth to restore order out of chaos, to replace irons and brushes and pomades and tonics.

About that time Monsieur Henri was balancing his books in the front office. He was a Van Dyke-bearded, slender Frenchman of about 35, with a dignity and grave graciousness in his manner which customers also remembered. Except for the cloying odor of pomades and restorers, he might have passed as a secretary at the French Embassy.

The telephone rang and monsieur dropped his pen, with a weary shrug of the shoulders.

"Good evening, madame," in spite of a dozen years in America he had never lost the crispness of his original accent. "Yes, madame." He listened for a few moments. "Will no one do but Mees Nellie? * * * Yes, madame * * * She is promised for half-past six in your hotel, madame * * * Yes, madame, I will see that she comes to you at a little after seven. Thank you, madame."

It was always that way. Customers would have Miss Nellie or no one.

DO YOU DREAD THE COLD?

Some people enjoy cold weather, take pleasure in winter sports and the keen air calls the pink to their cheeks and the red to their lips. Others shrink from cold and turn blue at the least exposure to frosty air.

The difference is in the blood. Rich, red blood warms the body. Every long breath of pure cold air increases the oxygen it carries to every part of the system. Thin blood is unable to take up the life-sustaining oxygen. The body lacks nourishment and the sufferer is always cold, takes a chill easily and is miserable all winter.

Thin blood is largely the sufferer's own fault. It results from neglect, because the blood can be built up. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills supply the elements that the blood needs to make it rich and red and to enable it to carry more oxygen. Building up the red portion of the blood is simple but because thin blood does not call attention to itself it is often neglected. Have you seriously considered taking a course of treatment with these bloodmaking pills? If you are in doubt write for information.

Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., will send you a booklet "Building Up the Blood" free on request.

Henri would have gone himself in order to spare her. He knew that in spite of her cheerful smile and, in spite of the goodly proportion of the arms and hands that wielded the irons she must sometimes be very tired.

"She is wonderful," Henri murmured to himself, and went back to his ledger.

In a few minutes, Miss Nellie came into the office, the setting to rights in the booth having been accomplished.

Henri began with an apologetic smile: "There is yet another date for tonight, Mrs. Vandevere's apartment in the same hotel as soon as you can finish with the first customer. I am sorry that it should always be you, Mees Nellie. But customers will have no one else."

Usually Miss Nellie would have replied with a smile. She would have told Henri that she was glad to go, that customers always tipped better after lights were on and that it was better to work than to go home to bed. But this night she merely passed Henri with a weary smile.

Henri had come to regard Miss Nellie's smile as a fixture. It was like the church bells that rang at 6 o'clock or the weekly receipt of the French paper from home—something pleasant that he took for granted. And he didn't realize till it was withdrawn how much it meant to him. Henri did not sleep at all well that night and started to work the next day weary from the start. He watched Miss Nellie pass through the outer office to the booths beyond.

"She is wonderful," that woman. Such a wave!" And as he watched her retreating figure he realized before that then he had ever realized before that there was something comely in Miss Nellie's 30-year-old plumpness. "I had thought some time," he mused to himself. "But a man has no time for such things nowadays. It is work, work, work."

That night when Miss Nellie passed through the office she paused briefly at Henri's desk and in the most matter-of-fact way imaginable told Henri that she had had a chance to go to the hairdressing establishment of Monsieur Alfonso across the way at an advance of a few dollars a week in salary. She intended to accept the offer. Henri was staggered. He merely asked her to return in the morning to see what he could do. That night he made a careful study of the books and in the morning when the Nellie came in he told her that he would equal his rival's offer in order to keep her in his employ. But the next evening at closing time Miss Nellie again came to him and told him that the rival had added a dollar to his offer. It was purely a business consideration, of course. She would go wherever she could make the most money. Henri spent another evening studying his books and the next morning he matched his rival.

Then Miss Nellie came again to Henri. "He has done better still," she said. "He has offered me commissions for all the trade I bring."

Henri was pale. "But do you not see, Mees Nellie," he said, "that all you have given you? The customers—have you not got them in my employ? That wave of yours—did I not teach it to you?"

"Yes," Nellie admitted. "But they are my customers. They come because I am here. They will follow me if I go to Alfonso. I have given you much in return. Well, monsieur, I have given you all my life since I was 20. I have given up having a good time like other girls. I never had young men like Blanche and Sadie. I could have had them if I wanted to * * * But somehow I just put all there was in me into the business. And it is all business. Now I shall do as well for myself as I can." Miss Nellie did not look at Henri as she spoke. He was speechless.

As she passed out of the office that night the little Frenchman's eyes followed her with an entreating, helpless look.

"She is very wonderful," he said to himself. "I do not blame her. Still—I must have her back. Without her I cannot carry on the business—I cannot be happy." Then Henri spent another night over his books—planning, meditating, pondering.

The next morning Henri arrived at Miss Nellie's small apartment before she was out for the day. She was pulling on her gloves in the front hall and he asked permission to start out with her. They sat on a park bench near Henri's shop and talked so low that no one passing would have heard them.

"Miss Nellie, I have but one way of hoping," he began. "I thought it all out last night. What is my business without you? Nothing. I know now—this with a shrug of the shoulders—that life is nothing without

JUBILENT ABOUT SUCCESS OF PLAN

Waterways Delegates Return Ticked Over Having Secured 1916 Waterways Convention

The first members of the victorious La Crosse delegation to the Upper Mississippi River Improvement association convention held at Quincy, Ill., last week, returned Friday night at 6:12 glowing over their success in bringing the 1916 convention to this city. This will be the first time that the convention will have assembled in La Crosse for ten years, the last time being during the term of William Torrance as mayor.

"The La Crosse delegation was the largest outside of Quincy itself and made one of the best showings," said Torrance Saturday in discussing the convention. "It was all La Crosse when it came to selecting a place of meeting for next year; when Frank Sisson extended the invitation of the Gateway City, other contestants withdrew, as the convention seemed practically unanimous in favoring the locals. A Muscatine man was the first to secure the floor when the question of choosing the next place of meeting arose and he extended the invitation of his city, but immediately withdrew in favor of La Crosse when Mr. Sisson presented his proposition. Keokuk would have liked to have the convention but said nothing whatever in regard to having it next year."

The date of the La Crosse convention may be determined at a meeting of the executive committee January 12 at Burlington, Iowa, at which Mr. Torrance will be present.

WHERE EXPERTS ARE FAILING

If you lived in a city, and wanted a local reform, wouldn't it work up to your nerves a little if you had to go campaigning from the tropics to the Canadian boundary instead of just over into the Second ward? Pity then the plight of citizens in our capital city.

Washington, District of Columbia, is spending thousands of dollars on a campaign for reform. They are appealing to the constituents of every congressman and senator for a favorable word—because they want a pension system for the fire department. The present pension fund, says an appealing little pamphlet that has gone over the country, is insufficient. It is furnished by the dog tax and police court fines, and payments of pensioners have been cut fifty per cent because there are not dogs and drunks enough.

The Chamber of Commerce, the Board of Trade, and every citizen's organization in the district wants a new system whereby the fund shall come in adequate amount from local licenses. So far they have not been able to get it. That, we submit, is a wonderful state of affairs in a city governed by such experts in statecraft as compose the national Congress.

FRANKNESS AND FOLLY

Mr. Weigle's answer to Senator La Follette's charge of neglecting the militant duties of his office must cause gloomy predictions to arise in the minds of citizens who contemplate several months more of such administration, but at least one is moved to admiration by the frankness of Mr. Weigle. We are not always so straightforwardly dealt with as to be told that the reason law is not enforced is that the officer who swore to do so does not approve the law. That is the only construction to be placed upon Mr. Weigle's bad-tempered little yip. Following is Mr. Weigle's statement:

I think the charge made against me by Senator La Follette of laxity, based on the twenty-three convictions I have caused to be made against violators of the state pure food laws in comparison with the 225 convictions credited to former Commissioner J. Q. Emery during his last year of service, is one of the greatest compliments ever paid me. I do not believe in making wholesale convictions.

Mr. Weigle seems given to "flops." One recalls his acrobatics before the legislature in regard to his appropriation. It does not seem out of keeping that he should now be so reversed and out of patience with the laws he undertook to cherish last spring. But to plead guilty with such deplorable lack of finesse!

It is a bleak outlook for the stalwarts, if Mr. Weigle be a sample sophist of their ranks. They will need a doughty explainer next fall. And in this connection one remembers with amusement the leader's "come-back":

"I assume that the speech made last night by Senator La Follette is the same one he made last year. I replied to it at that time and therefore will not say anything now."

Last year's answer won't go next fall, governor.

GOOD DEMOCRATIC DOCTRINE

The views of Dr. Charles J. Hexamer, president of the German American Alliance, upon one "T. R.", we fully endorse. The colonel's anti-German rables may be diagnosed as a miscarriage of political opportunism.

We believe, too, the doctor is quite right about the armament question, and we hope the opposition of the citizens represented in his organization may help check the madness of militarism which, largely inspired by those who see money in war preparations, threatens to precipitate hasty and ill-advised action.

We question his position favorable to universal embargo on arms, because that would compel every nation to manufacture and have on hand, always, every war necessity it might need in an emergency. Since Dr. Hexamer is against preparedness, he should not urge his country to initiate an international policy by which it must bar itself from the only alternative—the purchase of war equipment and supplies if suddenly attacked and forced into war.

As to the citizenship of the "hyphenates", we should feel deeply disappointed, in case the United States were involved in war, did not Dr. Hexamer and as large a percentage of his society as of any other group, give evidence of devoted patriotism. Not for the world would we disturb the sympathies of the vast majority of American-loyal German-Americans, but for their own sakes, to eliminate the misunderstanding largely due to the psychological effect of the term, we would drop the use of the hyphen.

In conclusion it may be said that he is an uninformed or a biased citizen who does not recognize the vital force of German virility, resource and cultivation in the making of the American nationality.

A silo is the safest investment a farmer who keeps stock can make. It is a practical form of insurance against shortage of feed at a critical time. It maintains the herd and flock in better condition and more economically in winter, and supplements pastures during summer drought. It may also save a corn crop hit by an untimely frost, for frosted corn can be utilized in this way which would otherwise be almost a total loss.

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles
Knocking Noah
Ah, Noah, you archaic one
Who had a chance to do
The world a favor and did not,
The world is sore on you.
There was a time in your career
When easily you could,
By very simple means, indeed,
Have made exceeding good.
That time, old chap, was when you'd bunched
All living things in pairs
And had them loaded on the ark
To land betimes somewhere.
Two elephants you had and two
Of every other size
And shape and sort, including of Two plain domestic flies.
Auspicious moment that was when,
If you had had a mind,
You might have truly made yourself
A friend to all mankind.
But Noah, you were derelict
And lost the glory prize
By failing, when you had the chance,
To swat that pair of flies.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS
Take a glass of Salts to flush kidneys if bladder
bothers you.
Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.
The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.
Jad Salts cannot injure anyone;
makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

Tonight sure! Remove the liver your head dizzy, your tongue coated, breath offensive and stomach sour.

Don't stay bilious, sick, headachy, constipated and full of cold. Why don't you get a box of Cascarets from the drug store now? Eat one or two tonight and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. You will wake up feeling fit and fine. Cascarets never grip or bother you all the next day like calomel, salts and pills.
They act gently but thoroughly.

Rear Admiral William H. Emory,

a young Barbados negro whom he listed as a mess attendant while at the island.
The admiral was busily engaged with a large amount of official mail when the mess attendant came in, hurriedly announcing, "A message from de general, sah."
"General who?" inquired the admiral.
"General delibery, sah," replied the innocent looking negro, handing the admiral a general delivery let-displayed great interest in the inmates. One old man particularly gained her compassion. "And how long have you been here, my man?"

she inquired.
"Twelve years," was the answer.
"Do they treat you well?"
"Yes."
"Do they food you well?"
"Yes."
After addressing a few more questions to him the visitor passed on.
She noticed a smile broadening on the face of her attendant, and on asking the cause heard with consternation that the old man was none other than the medical superintendent.
She hurried back to make apologies. How successful she was may be gathered from these words:
"I am sorry, doctor. I will never be governed by appearances again."

TAFT APPOINTS WHITEHEAD FOR PEACE CHAIRMAN
Peace League Begins Work on Plans to Make European War the Last to Disturb Nations
WILL GO TO ALL CONVENTIONS
Parker Plan for Permanent
Peace Will Be Urged Upon Political Parties of United States
Former Senator John M. Whitehead of Jaccsville has been appointed temporary chairman for the state of Wisconsin of the League to Enforce Peace, by former president of the United States William Howard Taft, head of the league.
The league was formed June 17,
at Independence hall, Philadelphia for the purpose of maintaining universal peace at the close of the present war. The league will organize on the plan used in political party organization but will be non-partisan as far as party politics is concerned.
Begin Organization
The appointment of Mr. Whitehead as temporary chairman is merely a beginning of the organization of the work in the various states. Mr.
Whitehead will shortly call a meeting of all state members of the league to form a state committee with a permanent chairman. County committees will then be formed and the work conducted along lines similar to those of political parties.
Political action in favor of the platform of the league, adopted at the convention in Philadelphia June 17, will be urged by the league is one of the means to be used to attain the purposes of the league. Members of the congress and the state legislatures will be urged to aid the movement, and committees to go to the national party conventions with a view to inducing them to adopt a plank in favor of the league's proposals, will be appointed.
The Platform
The entire platform of the league is summed up as follows:
It is proposed that the United States join with other great powers agreeing, (1) before resorting to arms to submit all questions to an international court, of (2) to a council of conciliation, (3) in order to enforce such a general treaty of arbitration, it is proposed that the nations agree to boycott any nation refusing to keep its agreement to arbitrate, and if necessary, to undertake a joint military expedition against it as was done in the case of China at the time of the Boxer uprising, (4)
As a means of perfecting judicial procedure in cases of international dispute, the adoption of a code of international law is proposed.

THOMPSON-DUXBURY SCRAP UP SATURDAY

The controversy between James Thompson and W. R. Duxbury, Minneapolis attorney, which has been before Judge E. C. Higbee in circuit court here, over the Nelson case at Omaha, will be settled in circuit court here next Saturday afternoon.
Judge Higbee announced Saturday.
The case has been set for 2 o'clock.
The controversy is the aftermath of the case of the settlement of the estate of Mr. Nelson. Mr. Thompson was to settle the case for the estate, and it is alleged that Duxbury persuaded Mrs. Nelson to take the case from Mr. Thompson's hands and turn it over to him.
When the case was called in circuit court Nov. 7, Judge Higbee severely denounced the "ambulance chasers," as he termed them, and declared that the court was in a position to protect its attorneys. He promised that the award of the amount of the lien held by Mrs.
Thompson in the case, and which will be decided next Saturday, would not be nominal.

IMPRESSIVE RITES MARK LAST DAY OF THE EXPOSITION
President's Toast to the Fair Is Read as Part of the Closing Ceremony
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6.—The closing day of the Panama-Pacific exposition was perfect for the crowds of over 300,000 expected to round out the nineteen millions who will have had visited the fair during its ten months' existence.
A long and varied program celebrating "Auld Lang Syne" day opened at sunrise with the national salute of twenty-one guns.
The forts around the bay also boomed farewell.
Following impressive ceremonies, President C. C. Moore, at midnight, will touch a button extinguishing all lights and the work of destroying some of the buildings will begin shortly afterward.
Formal farewell service were held at noon. President Wilson's toast to the exposition as typifying the possibilities of world peace and world service and George Sterling's poem, "The Builders," dedicated to the exposition, were read.
Mirth of the closing hours was to be halted shortly before midnight, when President Moore, in front of the Tower of Jewels, will bid good-bye to the exposition and the crowds will join in singing "Auld Lang Syne" as hundreds of rockets and air bombs finally close the exposition.
VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR IS AT REST
The funeral of Ellis P. Walcott, civil war veteran, was held Friday afternoon at 2:30 from the residence of Mrs. James Vincent. Rev. Carlos C. Rowison of the First Congregational church officiated, and Mrs. Percy Cilley sang. The body was laid to rest in the Walcott family lot in Oak Grove cemetery.
Mr. Walcott, a graduate of Norwich university, was a survivor of many battles of the civil war. He was a member of the Eighth New York horse artillery. For many years he was a member of Wilson Colwell grand army post here.
The pall-bearers at the veteran's funeral were: Messrs. J. H. Lightbody, Mills Tourtellotte, G. Van Steenwyk, N. C. Josten, Frank Pierce and W. M. Collieran.

FILM PARTY OPENS CHRISTMAS SEASON

School Children Guests of Majestic Saturday and All Others in City Were Entertained

With newsboys from the TRIBUNE and Leader-Press sharing the role of beneficiaries with the pupils of the Washburn and Longfellow schools, the Christmas season got under way Saturday. The youngsters were Saturday afternoon the guests of Manager F. L. Koppelman of the Majestic theater at a matinee movie show.

On successive Saturdays all of the school children of La Crosse will be guests of the Majestic. Every school will be taken in turn. The theatrical manager's invitation was accepted on behalf of the La Crosse public schools by President William Luening of the board of education. The famous "old Heidelberg," with real German atmosphere presented as only D. W. Griffith knows how, will be the feature offering of the Triangle motion picture program which will open at the Majestic next week. Rotund Roscoe Arbuckle, the 285 pound comedian, will appear in "Fickle Fatty's Fall," a Sennett-Keystone comedy.

The last half of the week will see Frank Keenan, noted character actor of the speaking state, in "The Coward," and that prince of comedians, Eddie Foy, in "A Favorite Fool." Eddie is assisted by the seven little Foy's, his interesting family.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—During most of the two hour trading Saturday the stock market stood practically idle. Changes in price were at first only fractional but the market's attitude was one of firmness and in the final half hour, an upward tendency was general. The day ended with considerably increased activity and with many net advances. One somewhat interesting fact was the strength of the war industrial, notwithstanding the recurrent talk of peace proposals. But most of the talk on the stock exchange consisted of cheerful forecasts of the president's coming recommendations to congress. Week-end complications of exchanges of bank checks at all the country's clearing houses showed that all records had again been surpassed this week, the total rising well above even the previous maximum of the third week of November.

PROPHECY BRICK ROADS FOR FUTURE

That brick paving on all county roads will become universal in the future is the opinion, unofficial, of the members of the road and bridge committee of the board of supervisors, who, together with Chairman Richard W. Davis of Bangor, Abel N. Moore, chairman of the street committee, and County Clerk Bert Jolivet, went to Winona Friday to inspect the brick paved county roads. The brick paved road, although involving a greater initial outlay, is cheaper in the long run, because of its greater durability, is the belief of the Winona authorities.

VALUE ELECTRIC PLANT

PORTAGE, Wis., Dec. 6.—The state railroad commission has sent estimates to the city authorities that the physical value of the plant of the Portage Electric Light and Power company as placed by their engineers was $52,501. The city recently voted to purchase the plant. The hearing for appraisal is set for Madison on January 18.

It has been estimated that 7,000,000 acres of Wisconsin lands could be improved by drainage. "The Right Drain for the Right Place" is the title of a bulletin which residents of the state may obtain by writing to the Agricultural Experiment Station.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with indigestion, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

INTENDED BENEFACTOR OF BISSIE WAKEFIELD BRINGS CURIO HERE

W. T. S. McCleary, Toledo, Ohio, known as "Lonesome Max", the man who two years ago volunteered to hang at New Haven, Conn., for Mrs. Bessie Wakefield, "the woman without a chance", was in La Crosse Saturday. The wanderer of many states came to La Crosse from Eau Claire. McCleary modestly exhibited a book of clippings from newspapers throughout the country relating his offer to take Mrs. Wakefield's place on the scaffold. When asked the motive for his action, he replied simply, "Hers was a young life, and besides, she was not entirely to blame for the murder of her husband." The offer had no chance of consummation, as Mrs. Wakefield's sentence was commuted to life imprisonment.

Not least of McCleary's effects is a collection of carved nuts, probably the largest and most interesting in existence. "Lonesome Max", so he says, has been a carver all his life. In fact, prior to the Wakefield case he had a shop in Toledo.

Peach nut carvings are Max's hobby. His coat and waistcoat buttons are of the pits and on his left lapel he wears a Moose emblem, carved from a nut. In his scarf dangled a miniature monkey in the same work.

His pockets were lined with nuts, not the kind, however, which might delight the gastronomic propensities of youth. The nuts, priceless to him, were carved in every form of animal, insect and bird life. Of them he had a hundred.

He showed a cane, which, he said, has probably been handled more than any other one object in the world. It might have been a totem pole had it been larger. On it, he claims are five hundred images.

From one pocket he brought forth a collection of carved poker chips which might have been made in a zoo. He had a bevy of chickens with him—forty-five chicks on a space less than one-half the chip.

Chief among his possessions, said McCleary, is prized a carved guitar, which, he says, has been on exhibition at the Panama-Pacific exposition. He brought out photographs of numerous carvings in wood, which, he said, came from his own hand. One was the image of a pocket knife, his only tool.

What this country really needs is a few more people who are willing to practice after they get through preaching.

GERARD BECOMES "SOME" HUNTER

By CARL W. ACKERMAN.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
BERLIN, Nov. 2.—(By mail.)—"If meat gets scarce this winter," jokingly remarked Ambassador Gerard, "I guess I'll have to supply the American colony with game." And that's how the Berlin Americans first heard about Gerard's latest role—that of hunter.

During the last month the ambassador has bagged a fine lot of game, including deer, ducks, pheasants, rabbits and other animals on his game preserve near Berlin. The ambassador is considered an expert shot. Recently he bagged a duck at 200 yards with his army rifle. The last two roebucks he killed were shot through the head. Many a table in the American colony these days is weighed down with a five or ten pound roebuck steak, which is considered the finest meat in Germany.

When the Ambassador first learned that it would be impossible for him to take a vacation because of the uncertain international situation he rented the lodge. Every day he leaves the embassy about 1 p. m., rides to the lodge in his automobile, tramps about the fields and woods until about 10 p. m., when he returns to the city. Sometimes he takes Mr. Ohnesorge, assistant naval attaché to the embassy, with him.

Two Small Fires

Hose companies No. 1 and 3 were called into action yesterday by two fires which resulted in small damages. Company No. 1 made a run to the John Koller grocery store, Fourth and Division streets, at 5 o'clock yesterday morning. A small blaze started in the basement. Smoke slightly damaged some of the stock. Planks above the heating plant in the basement of St. Rose convent became overheated and burst into flames yesterday afternoon. Company No. 3 responded.

Hears Curtain Case

Judge E. C. Higbee listened to testimony in the suit against the Modern Steam Laundry instituted by the Clinger Curtain company, in circuit court Saturday. W. E. Clinger, proprietor of the concern, maintains that he entered into a contract with W. E. Barber of the laundry company, to display his advertisement on the La Crosse theater curtain. Barber claims that the contract was not fulfilled and refused to pay the bill. Judge Higbee took the case under advisement. Court adjourned until Thursday, when two minor cases and a divorce action will be heard. The difficulties of the Charles Mosser family will be heard. Mrs. Annie Mosser is seeking separation from her husband.

MACCABEES HAVE PARTY

About sixty-five couples attended the private dancing party given by the Maccabees Friday evening at Central hall, corner Caledonia and Clinton streets. The time was most enjoyably spent by all. Music was furnished by a three piece orchestra. A quintet composed of boys favored the assemblage with several vocal selections which were well received.

NORMAL CLUB DANCE

Saturday evening witnessed one of the most successful social events of the year at the normal school. The occasion was the fifth annual dance given by the Ladies' Glee club. About fifty-five couples were present to enjoy the event, on which the club had been working for months. Every phase of the entertainment was worked out carefully. The beautiful decorations, the large easy chairs about the gymnasium, and the fact that the ladies even made out all the programs added immensely to the masculine guests' enjoyment. Eighteen numbers were included in the program which continued until midnight.

TRY THIS FOR A COLD—IT'S FINE!

"Pape's Cold Compound" ends severe colds or grippe in few hours.

You can end grippe and break up a severe cold either in head, chest, body or limbs, by taking a dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" every two hours until three doses are taken.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling. Ease your throbbing head—nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine.

BROESE IS CHOSEN HEAD OF BREWERS

Bartl Brewmaster Elected When Chitel Refused Re-election at Annual Session

William Broese, brewmaster of the Bartl Brewing company, was elected president of the Upper Mississippi Valley Brewmasters' association at their annual session in La Crosse Saturday, succeeding Ernst Chitel of the Michel brewery, who declined re-election. The annual convention of the brewmasters concluded with a banquet and ball Saturday evening. Senator Otto Bosshard was toastmaster at the banquet.

Other officers elected at the convention were Ferdinand J. Effinger, Baraboo, vice president, and Fred Bloesing, La Crosse, secretary and treasurer.

In the afternoon wives of the local members of the association entertained the ladies of the visitors at a theater party. A stag dinner was served Saturday noon to the brewmasters. After the business session in the afternoon, the convention listened to an address by Prof. Richard Schneider of the Hantke Brewers' school in Milwaukee.

Professor Schneider's talk was the first of a series he will give on buying and handling barley in the manufacture of beer.

ABSENCE DELAYS SEAL SALE MEET

Disposal of Red Cross Stamps Is Already Under Way Along Lines of Former Years

The meeting of the board of trade public health committee, scheduled for Saturday night at the La Crosse club, was adjourned until next week, owing to the inability of several of the eighteen members of the committee to be present at the meeting.

The meeting was called by F. H. Scofield for the purpose of organizing the campaign for the sale of Christmas seals. The seal sale has been started in good shape along lines of former years. The committee has sent out, as in the past, a number of packages containing a dollar's worth of seals. About 275 packages have been sent to the business and professional men in the city.

Seals are on sale at Heberd's drug store, Doerflinger Park store, City Book store, corner Fifth and Main streets, and C. L. Lien's and H. L. Partridge's drug stores on the north side. Seals can be obtained by telephoning F. H. Scofield in the State Bank building. They will also be placed on sale Monday at the high school, normal and the ward schools.

"Now," said a teacher to his class during a lesson in English, "can anyone give me a word ending with 'ous,' meaning full of, as 'dangerous,' full of danger, and 'hazardous,' full of hazard?" There was silence in the class for a moment. Then a boy sitting in the front row put up his hand. "Well," said the teacher, "what is your word?" "Please, sir," came the reply, "'pious,' full of piety!"

by most legislators to hang upon the results of this session. Political flavor was added to the day by the presence in Washington of the democratic national committee, which meets tomorrow to decide the time and place of the 1916 democratic national convention. A week later the republican national committee meets here for the same purpose. The reconvening of congress was heralded among all party leaders as marking the opening of the 1916 political campaign.

Interest in Defense Program
Both legislative and political interest centered in the administration's billion-dollar national defense program. Whether democratic opposition would defeat the president's plans and also cause a breach in democratic solidarity for the next campaign, caused much discussion. Chairmen of the naval and military committees had the bills practically drafted and ready for early introduction.
Presentation to congress today of the annual appropriation estimates insured another billion dollar congress. Increased expenditures for the navy and army preparedness program bulged the requests.
In the Gallery
Gallery habitués missed many familiar faces, including those of former Senators Root, Burton, Bristow and Uncle Ike Stephenson, and those of Representatives Payne, Calder, Bartholdt, Floyd of Arkansas, Levy of New York, Palmer of Pennsylvania, Donovan of Connecticut and Stanley of Kentucky, now governor.

Among others commanding popular attention were: Representative Schall of Minnesota, the only blind member of the house; Meyer London, the sole socialist, and Representative Martin of Louisiana, a progressive.

Bills Swamp Both Houses
An avalanche of bills, resolutions and petitions swamped both senate and house clerks. There were thousands of the bills, on every conceivable legislative subject. Especially noticeable were those proposing various war measures. The government printing office will be unable to handle the landslide of documents for several days.

Tomorrow, real business will begin. Committee assignments are practically completed and initial measures drafted. First on the program is the extension of the emergency war tax, which expires Dec. 31. This is expected to be followed by a resolution extending present duties on sugar, which is scheduled to go on the free list next May.

Marshall Proposed
Talk of displacing Vice President Thos. R. Marshall on the 1916 democratic ticket has started a movement in Indiana for the nomination of Governor Ralston for vice president, according to National Committeeman Tom Taggart here for the meeting.

THE IRREVERENT SUFFERED

TORONTO, Ont., Dec. 6.—While 75 employees knelt in prayer at daily religious services in Grey Machinery works today a terrific boiler explosion shook the plant, killing two men and injuring three others. The five had remained smoking in the engine room, while others attended the religious service.

ELKS HONOR THE MEMORY OF THEIR ABSENT BROTHERS

Annual Memorial Service Held Sunday Afternoon
in St. Paul's Universalist Church

ONE MORE NAME ON THE ROLL

Inspiring Eulogy Is Delivered by District Deputy Exalted Ruler W. J. Conway

With one more name added to the list of "absent brothers" since the last memorial service, Elks Lodge, No. 300, of La Crosse, yesterday afternoon met to do honor of its dead, in conformity to the motto of the order.

"The faults of our brothers we write upon the sands, Their virtues upon the tablets of love and memory." The memorial was held in St. Paul's Universalist church, the lodge members attending in a body. The simply solemn ritual of the order was carried out by the officers, and an inspiring eulogy delivered by Hon. W. J. Conway of Grand Rapids, district deputy exalted ruler of the Elks.

The service was accompanied by a splendid musical program. John L. Uttermoehl and Burt C. Miner were the soloists, and two numbers were rendered by a quartet made up of Otto Zielke, Edward Sullivan, Burt C. Miner and John L. Uttermoehl.

Oscar F. Anderson, who died February 2, 1915, is the most recent "absent brother." The roll of dead contains also the names of H. L. Howard, Frank Pooler, Louis A. Grams, V. A. Bigelow, J. D. Young, H. T. Waters, H. H. Byrne, J. M. Vrchota, W. P. Boycott, Fred B. Smith, Lafayette Holmes, J. E. Kirshels, C. E. Phillips, W. A. Sutor, L. Coren, Alfred T. Mueller, Thomas Herman, H. G. Merrick and M. I. Bjornstad.

High praise was given the La Crosse lodge of Elks for their exemplification of one of the order's chief virtues—charity—by Mr. Conway. He spoke in glowing terms of the fraternal spirit of the order, and referred tenderly to the "absent brothers."

made at the consistory today of the following American appointments: Bishop Giuseppe Glass, formerly of Lead, S. D., to be bishop of St. Cloud, Minn.; Bishop Mundein of Brooklyn, to be archbishop of Chicago; Monsignor Brossant, to be bishop of Covington, Ky.; Monsignor Dougherty, now in the Philippines, to be bishop of Buffalo; Monsignor Giuseppe Petrelli, to be apostolic delegate to the Philippines and Monsignor Edward Patricio Rozue, to be administrator to the metropolitan diocese of St. John's Newfoundland.

WARSHIP ASKED TO AID UNKNOWN SHIP THOUGHT ATTACKED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The state department late today asked for a warship to rescue an American vessel, name unknown, which wireless from the northern coast of Africa Friday that she was being attacked by a submarine.

American Minister Droppers at Athens reported that a Greek wireless station had received word from the vessel, giving her position 128 miles south of the island of Crete, but her name was lost in transmission. The cruiser Des Moines and the collier Caesar, now in Mediterranean waters, will search for the vessel.

The report that the collier Caesar was the ship that sent the message is in the above proved to be groundless. It is thought that the boat was of foreign ownership and of American registry. Unless Americans were lost, it is not thought that serious complications will result.

ETHEL BARRYMORE IN THE FINAL JUDGMENT

Miss Ethel Barrymore with a supporting company of exceptionally high quality, which includes Mr. H. Cooper Cliffe, who won fame as "Nobody" in "Everywoman," is appearing in "The Final Judgment" at the Casino today and tomorrow. Some idea of the merits of "The Final Judgment" may be gathered from the fact that in competition with all of the high class features this play was selected by the Keith interests to open the new Hippodrome theatre of Boston, a house seating 4,000, an honor sought by all film companies. The Hippodrome opened three weeks ago and the admission prices charged were 25c to $1.00. Whether the credit was due to the recognized excellence of the Metro programs, or to the fact that Miss Barrymore and Mr. Cliffe were the stars, is an open question, but it doubtless was the combination of both that prompted the selection.

"The Final Judgment" will be shown at the Casino today and tomorrow.

UTILITY SUED BY STATE FOR TWO MILLION PENALTY

Milwaukee Street Railway Company Defendant in Case Involving
$1,860,000

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 6.—In an action started in the circuit court of Dane county today, the state has sued the Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light company for penalties aggregating $1,860,000, charging violations of the order of the railroad commission on December 24, 1913, in which standards for street railway service in Milwaukee were fixed.

The state's complaint was served on the attorneys for the street railway company today. This document, which is 223 pages long, was prepared by Deputy Attorney General Walter Drew. The company is given twenty days in which to answer bringing the trial in the January term of the Dane county circuit court. The amount for which judgment is asked is the largest ever sued for by the state.

The complaint charges specifically 186 separate violations of the commission's order. It is held by the state that in each instance the Milwaukee Street Railway company thereby became indebted to the state of Wisconsin to the sum of $10,000. This is the maximum penalty under the law.

PAMPERED FOWLS ARRIVE FOR SHOW

Each One to Have an Individual Boudoir of His Own in Line of Pens at Armory

The silver anniversary show of the Western Wisconsin Poultry association—biggest in its history—will get under way tomorrow when the doors are thrown open to visitors. Hundreds of the fancy fowls that are entered in the exhibition were on hand today, and wagons were unloading more throughout the day. There are still several hundred birds to come and it is expected there will be still some late arrivals claiming places tomorrow.

Members of the poultry association were busy yesterday arranging armory hall, Sixth and Market streets, for the exhibit. Long lines of pens were erected, a brand new cooping system having been installed for the show. Each of the pampered pet chickens has an individual boudoir of his own.

NINE CHILDREN AND FAMILIES PRESENT AT THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Herman, 1427 Badger street, celebrated the fifth anniversary of their marriage, at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Otto Wolfe, on the South Salem road yesterday. Youthful in appearance and as happy as they were half a century ago, they joined their laughter with their nine children and their families. The gathering was in the nature of a surprise party.

The date of the anniversary fell on Friday, December 3. Mr. and Mrs. Herman were married in La Crosse in 1860. Until five years ago they resided on a farm in Smith's Valley. Both Mr. and Mrs. Herman were born in Germany. Mr. Hermann came to America at the age of sixteen and Mrs. Hermann left the Fatherland at the age of nine. They met each other in La Crosse.

His Prospect Had Sold Stolen Bike So He Calls Cops

Because he inadvertently attempted to sell a bicycle to Joseph Smith, dealer who recently sold the wheel to William Riggert, 712 North Tenth street, Horace Brown, a baker, is in a cell at Central station. He was arrested after a rough-and-tumble with Detective Joseph McGrath in which Joseph Smith's bicycle shop at Eighth and Division streets was considerably churned up.
The police said today that Brown, who says his home is in Chicago, took the wheel from in front of a downtown saloon. He pedaled it out to Smith's, where the dealer recognized it when he offered it for sale. Smith called the police.

FORD NAMES HIS COMMITTEES FOR NEGOTIATIONS

Each Body Will Meet a Corresponding Committee from a Neutral Country

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
ABOARD PEACE SHIP OSCAR II, VIA WIRELESS TO SIASCONSET, Mass., Dec. 6.—Skipper Henry Ford today set in motion the machinery by which he "hopes to bring the boys out of the trenches." Ford began organizing peace committees from groups of clergymen, students and other classes aboard the peace ship. Even the newspapermen were drafted into service.

Each of these committees will meet a corresponding committee from a neutral country at the coming peace conference. They will work together in choosing an international commission to sit for the remainder of the war to receive or offer suggestions for peace. The commission's business primarily will be to give the widest possible publicity to all peace suggestions in contrast to the secret methods of diplomats.

It now appears certain that at least some of the peace pilgrims, including the leaders, will attempt to cross Germany enroute from Denmark to Holland. They believe the authorities of no belligerent nation would dare interfere with their mission despite the fact that they lack passports for Germany.

The international peace commission probably will sit in Copenhagen instead of The Hague, because of better cable facilities.

INSURANCE AGENTS HERE TO ORGANIZE

Organization of a La Crosse branch of the National Association of Life Insurance Underwriters is expected to take place at a meeting to be held this evening in the Stoddard hotel. All insurance agents of the city have been invited to the gathering. A. C. Larson, secretary of the national organization, is expected to be here for the meeting, to explain the purposes of the organization. Several Madison members were expected to accompany Mr. Larson. It is planned to organize similar societies in every city in the state.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is one of the greatest advantages.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.

STEAMER PRONOUNCED FIT

MANITOWOC, Wis., Dec. 6.—The new Goodrich line steamer Nevada was today pronounced ready to stand the difficult ice breaking trips on Lake Michigan by Superintendent Cochran after the big boat had been given a two hour trial. She was in charge of Captain Redner during the test.

HAD BRONCHIAL ASTHMA

So Badly Man Could Not Lie Down—Cured by Vinol.

For years and years we have been telling the people of La Crosse that Vinol is a wonderful remedy for bronchial troubles. Here is positive proof:

"Tilden, Ill. 'For five years I suffered from bronchial asthma. In the winter time I was obliged to sit in a Morris chair all night, as I could not lie down, owing to that dreadful choking sensation. I tried nearly every known remedy, but nothing gave me any relief until one day I met the Station Agent at Willisville, Ill., and he said he had been a sufferer for years, but had been cured by Vinol. I at once commenced to take it, and the result is my cough is gone, my appetite has improved, and I can lie down and sleep all night, and my experience leads me to believe that Vinol is a certain remedy for bronchial asthma.' John H. Condell, Tilden, Ill.

The reason that cough syrups fail in such cases is because they are palliative only, while Vinol removes the cause, being a constitutional remedy in which are combined the healing elements of fresh cod livers, together with tonic iron and beef peptone. It strengthens and revitalizes the entire system and assists nature to expel the disease.

Any one who has headaches, bilious attacks, heart flutter, or some other of these common ills, had better look to coffee drinking; and remember that there's one sure, easy way to be rid of coffee troubles—quit coffee—and

Use

INSTANT POSTUM

—the Pure Food-Drink

A level teaspoonful in a cup of boiling water makes a delicious drink—instantly. The rich flavour of Instant Postum, much like the mild Javas of the Old Dutch Gov't plantations, makes the change easy.

But more important, Instant Postum, made only of wheat and a bit of molasses, is free from the drug, caffeine, in coffee, or any other harmful element. Old and young alike may drink as much as they desire with no bad "after effects."

Pure and delicious, Instant Postum costs less and tastes better than much of the coffee in general use.

No bother to prepare—no bother to health.

REINSTATEMENT OF STARS EXPECTED

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 6.—
The reinstatement as amateurs of Harry Legore and the four other Yale athletic stars, who were disqualified for playing summer baseball, seemed likely today following the informal conferences of the athletic commissions of Yale, Harvard and Princeton. Professor Robert N.
Corwin, chairman of the Yale athletic commission, said the cases had been considered only informally but a ruling was expected soon.

Arthur Milburn, Harry Rhett, William Easton and Spencer Pumptily were disqualified with Legore.

COLLEGE BASEBALL IS VOTED OUT BY BIG NINE BOSSES

If Colleges Act as Did Their Delegates the Sport
Will Be Abolished

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—The faculty representatives of the Middle West Conference Athletic association comprising the "Big Nine colleges" on Saturday voted 6 to 3 to abolish entirely inter-collegiate baseball. The matter now goes to the faculties of the nine schools. It was reported that Illinois, Wisconsin and Iowa representatives voted not to abolish the sport. To rescind the vote any one of the nine colleges must file its disapproval within 60 days from today. If no such objection is filed the rule becomes operative. If it is filed the conference will again vote on the question as its June meeting and a majority vote will make it a rule.
The vote on baseball was taken only after acrimonious debate during which the game was termed "too commercial to be worthy of being a major college sport," and a game that was the cause of 75 per cent of all the cases of ineligibility among college athletes.

Debate on the question started with the introduction of a resolution that looked innocuous on its face but which contained a bite in it.
The resolution, in effect read:
Single Standard Spurned
"Be it resolved that eligibility of a student shall depend upon his standing in scholarship and a one-year residence at the college he represents," there was nothing said for a moment and then two delegates jumped to their feet to say:

"That means a man could play summer baseball. It would make him eligible to represent his school regardless of his amateur standing." The motion was rushed to a vote and beaten 6 to 3.

No action was taken on the suggestion that golf and soccer football be included as major sports, on the ground that too little interest has been shown in the matter since a resolution was introduced but tabled a year ago, urging their adoption.

A fight was made on a resolution forbidding more than two days' secret football practice a week, and a compromise was effected on a rule requiring open practice at least one day in seven.

Investigate Early Practice
Professor Tetter of Iowa, Dean Goodnow of Illinois and A. W. Small of Chicago were named as committee of three to investigate reports that the rule prohibiting football practice before September 20 is being disregarded.

To Add Javelin Throw
It was voted to add the javelin throw to the events in outdoor intercollegiate championship meets.

Professor French of Ohio, Pyre of Wisconsin and Pooley of Northwestern were named a committee of three to investigate charges that cross-country runs for freshmen are too strenuous.

A. W. Small of Chicago was appointed delegate to represent the conference at the meeting of the national intercollegiate athletic association in New York on December 18.

Cub Buck, Badger tackle, acknowledged to be one of the best tackles in the country, a man fashioned after Butler, who graduated last spring after winning all-American honors in 1913, has been placed on another all-western eleven. This time it is E. C. Patterson of Collier's who picks the Wisconsin star. Buck is chosen as a running mate for Rundquist of Illinois.

Illinois, which tier with Minnesota for the Big Nine championship, has four men on the team. Minnesota is divested of three of her stars, while Chicago, Wisconsin, Purdue and Wisconsin are each represented once.

Simpson and Byers of Wisconsin, who were the most consistent ground gainers this year for the Badgers, are placed as halfbacks on the second team.

WESTERN "PREPS" SHOW THEY HAVE BETTER OF EAST

Western preparatory football demonstrated its superiority over that of the East Saturday, when three intersectional games were played. Both sections won one game, while the third was a tie, but the 30 to 7 defeat which DePaul Academy of Chi-

High more than offset the rather lucky 13 to 12 win of Hamilton Institute of New York City over East Aurora, Ill. The game was decided by one goal kicked after a touchdown. Everett High of Boston, which lost the national title two years ago to Oak Park of Chicago, was held to a scoreless tie by Detroit.

BIKE RECORD BROKEN

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Seventeen teams, the entire field in the annual six day bicycle race at Madison Square Garden had broken the track records for eight hours when, at eight o'clock this morning, they were bunched at 190 miles, two laps, with Reggie McNamara, the Australian, slightly in the lead. The former record, 189 miles and nine laps, made in 1914 by Lawson and Dro-bach.

La Crosse Not So Worse After All
Says Scribe Of
The Cream City

At last it is here.

Listen to what "The Cub Reporter" of the Milwaukee Free Press, that town of Riverside, has to say.
He buries all differences when it comes to the question of the relative merits of Wisconsin high schools and those schools of the West which on Saturday played eastern preparatory schools, to their glory.

This is what he says:
"Western schools finished pretty well in the intersectional contests with eastern high schools. But we have a hunch that some of our local high schools, or La Crosse, which has a healthy claim on some of the lost titles hereabouts, would give the other western schools engaged a good run for their money. De Paul which beat Marquette Preps 38 to 13, beat their Boston rivals 30 to 7. Marquette lost to Wayland 19 to 7. Wayland lost to North about 20 to 6, and North was soundly trounced by West 32 to 7. West, it might be mentioned lost about 20 to 6 to East. Oh well, you can't buck the Chicago press agents when it comes to championships."

To which may be added: "We told you so."

TAKES DAILY DIP

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—A maximum temperature of 37 degrees yesterday did not prevent Miss Gene Beaumont from taking her Sunday dip in the lake with only a one-piece suit between her and the rest of the world.

LORENZ CROWNED "CORN KING" OF HOUSTON COUNTY

Big Crowd Attends Final Session of Chief's Corn Show at Hokah

Saturday

BENTLEY URGES CO-OPERATION

Mayor Advances Novel Theory of Extending Co-operative Principle to Include Community

While his townsmen and a delegation from La Crosse applauded, Frank Lorenz of the Root River Valley was crowned corn king of Houston county, as the closing event of the Chief's corn show at Hokah on Saturday afternoon. Mayor A. A. Bentley and fifteen La Crosse businessmen made up the delegation that motored over to Hokah to take part in the festivities. The mayor delivered a speech that was one of the main events of the afternoon's program.

H. E. Wheaton, editor of the Hokah Chief, was the master of ceremonies, as he has been the moving spirit of the corn show. He was elated Saturday by the fact that in this, the second year of his career, the Chief corn show had an exhibit three times as large as last year.

Hundreds Attend

Hokah was a busy place Saturday afternoon. Both sides of its main street were lined with automobiles and horse-drawn vehicles of all sorts. The walks were crowded, and in Odd-fellows' hall, where the show was in progress, it was something of a problem to move about, owing to the hundreds of men, women and children that crowded about the exhibits.

Children, by the way, played a considerable part in the ceremonies of the day. There was an enjoyable program, rendered by the school children of Hokah, beginning with a gesture song by the kindergartners, and including a number of well-done recitations and solos. One of the best received numbers was a song by fifth and sixth graders, costumed in traditional farmer garb. More than a score of boys and girls were in the group, which sang a parody on "Casey Jones," written by the son of Editor Wheaton. The refrain of each verse—"Down to Hokah to the Chief corn show"—was given with a will that threatened the glass in the windows.

Wins Parker Trophy

Brief ceremonies marked the coronation of the county corn king. He was introduced by Mr. Wheaton, and seated upon the platform, while two little girls placed upon his head a big gilt crown, emblematic of his achievement in winning the sweepstakes prize of the exhibit. Mr. Lorenz also won first for both white and yellow corn. He will hold the Parker silver trophy for a year.

Houston county's royal strain of corn is directly descended from last year's dynasty, for Mr. Lorenz raised his winning exhibit from seed corn of the exhibit which won the crown and trophy for David Ender, Sr., at the 1914 show.

The exhibits were judged by J. T. Scott, a grain expert of the University of Minnesota agricultural college.

Frank Amismeyer of Bush Valley, took the prize for the most perfect ear exhibit.

Enthusiastic applause greeted Mayor Bentley's speech, in which was advanced a novel theory of co-operation.

"Co-operation, as we have now worked it out," said La Crosse executive, "is incomplete. The benefits accrue only to the investors in the particular co-operative enterprise. There is a bigger field for it, that will be of enormous benefit to all the people. We should co-operate in all our community life. We should buy and sell as much as possible within our own district, be self-sustaining, mutually helpful.

"If a circle of fifty miles radius were drawn with the La Crosse wagon bridge as a center, and the people included in that zone were to trade among themselves, we should find that the profits that have been going to the outside every year would pay all school expenses in the zone and build 100 miles of macadam road. That is an estimate on figures I believe to be conservative, which have lately come into my possession."

Mayor Bentley was roundly applauded when he made an appeal for national unity and patriotism single-mindedly American. It is particularly a duty at the present time, when the old world is fighting amid the wreckage of its civilization, he declared.

Chicago Grain Review

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—A new high mark for the crop was set in the wheat pit today. A strong buying at the start sent the opening up 1 3-8c and 7-8c to $1.18 and $1.17. There was a dip shortly later when there was a tendency to unload at the high figures. Later the buyers returned to the majority and prices soared to 1 3-8c and 2 1-2c above the opening.

Heavy demand and reports that the last crop was shorter than expected, caused sharply higher prices today. The opening was up 1 1-2c and 1-2c to 68 1-4c and 70 3-4c. The demand grew as the day advanced and prices later advanced 1-4c and 1c.

Oats showed little change. There was little trading. Prices were up 1-2c at the opening. Later May advanced 1 1-4c while December remained unchanged.

Provisions were lower on heavy receipts at the yards.

PORK

Jan. .

To the Proud Pioneers:

Ladies, children and the "proud pioneers" are invited to the Majestic theater to see REAL motion pictures. Real ones, gentlemen, presented in a CLEAN and well-ventilated theater. We have a few pointers in projection which the "pioneers" have overlooked. They weren't introduced in the pioneer days of motion pictures in La Crosse. The "pioneers," therefore, will find much to interest them in our way of showing pictures—the new way—without any "one-moment-please-for-changing-films" waits. Our operators are efficient young men who will be glad to show the "pioneers" anything they may not know about projection.

You'll like the pictures, "pioneers." You really can't help it. They're the Triangle pictures, you know—the ones that the Minneapolis Lyric put in to bolster up their Paramount program. Member how the Mill City house on the strength of the Triangle showed the price up from a dime to 15, 25 and 50 cents? If you'll come over, "pioneers," and be our guests, you'll see why they could get away with a boost of from 50 to 500 per cent in prices. Vurra nice pictures, "pioneers," if we do say so.

You'll like our music, too, "pioneers." We have a real orchestra, and they play the pictures to a finish. It's all special music, "pioneers"—that's another new stunt that pioneer days weren't wise to. William Furst arranges it. Of course you've heard of Mr. Furst? Yes, the Triangle musical director—that's the man.

We've a nice show for you to see, "pioneers." Come on over and see it. Photography, projection, sanitation, music—lots of things that would interest "pioneers." The world DO move, you know, "pioneers."

Yours Triangularly,

CHRISTMAS SEALS SELL RAPIDLY IN CITY OF RUSHFORD

RUSHFORD, Minn., Dec. 6.—(Special.)—Rushford does not mean to be left behind when it comes to a fight against "the white plague," and to that end everyone is buying Red Cross seals, wherewith to carry on the campaign. Those places of business carrying the seals report good sales of them.

Books to Arrive
Forty dollars' worth of new books recently purchased by the local W. C. T. U. will shortly be upon the shelves of the city library. A few of the volumes have arrived and are now at the library. It has been deemed best by those who have the matter in hand to defer the purchase of the rest of the list until such time as the reading matter now on hand at the building shall have been read by all.

Sale and Supper
A week from Saturday, Dec. 11, the ladies of the Presbyterian church will serve their annual chicken-pie supper and will also hold a sale of fancy work and Christmas articles. Sale and supper will be held in the church basement as usual.

New School Club
A literary club has been organized by the students of the high school. Programs will be given every two weeks and all are asked to encourage those who participate therein.

Personals
The Medhaug home in Brooklyn and also the home of Mrs. Kathryn Johnson on Ferry street have recently had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Asmund Nelson of Veblen, S. D. The latter are relatives of the Medhaug family and were neighbors to them while residing in their former home in Norway.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage on December 8 of Miss Ella Gorder, of Highland Prairie, to Martin Thompson. Both parties are well and favorably known here, Miss Gorder being a sister of Mrs. C. C. Jensen of this city.

Miss Minnie Austinson, who, for several months has been a guest at the home of her brother, N. T. Austinson of this city, left for her home in Dennison, Minn., a few days ago. She was accompanied to Minneapolis by her brother, John Austinson.

Another Rushford boy has made good in more than one respect. Dr. H. F. Ronnenberg, formerly of this city but who has been a very successful veterinarian at Lanesboro for some time, has been offered an appointment as inspector of meat products at the South St. Paul Packing plant.

Contractor Akre has a force of workmen engaged on the foundation work of the new residence to be erected for Olaf Olson, of this city. The new home will be directly opposite Mr. Olson's old residence which has been recently purchased by Mr. Aslak Dahle.

Erick Sviggum brought his son Peter down to Rushford from North Prairie recently to take the train for Northfield, where he is a student.

POSTOFFICE'S SCORE PERFECT
GRAND RAPIDS, Wis., Dec. 6.—W. F. Esch, United States postoffice inspector, inspected the local postoffice and the office passed with a perfect score.

A missionary in a slum district presented a ragged little urchin with a new suit of clothes. More than a week passed away, and the missionary met his little friend again. Being well acquainted with the condition of the boy's home, and everything he could lay his hands on, he was surprised and pleased to find that the lad still wore the suit. "Still wearing your suit?" he asked, and there was a world of pathos in the lad's reply. "Yes, sir; I've slept in it."

Prudence is sweet, real, human, and beautiful. We need more wholesome fiction like Prudence of the Parsonage.

MORAN JOINS TOMAH MILITIA COMPANY

Nineteen Year Old Boy the First of Younger Generation to Enter Company K

TOMAH, Wis., Dec. 6.—(Special.)—Edward V. Moran, nineteen-year-old son of Thomas Moran, prominent resident of Tomah, is the first of younger Tomah men to enlist in Company K, recently organized militia company here. Moran's father was a member of the old Company K under Colonel George Graham, father of Captain J. G. Graham, head of the company. The number of applications for enlistment from among the high school boys and others will probably bring the number to the required strength.

YOUR BRONCHIAL TUBES

When a cold settles in the bronchial tubes, with that weakening, tickling cough, immediate treatment is very important. The breath seems shorter because of mucous obstructions; usually fever is present, your head jars with every cough and your chest may ache. This is no time for experimenting or delay—you must get Scott's Emulsion at once to drive out the cold which started the trouble, and it will check the cough by aiding the healing process of the enfeebled membranes.

If you have any symptoms of bronchitis, or even a stubborn cold, always remember that Scott's Emulsion has been relieving this trouble for forty years. It is free from alcohol or drugs. Refuse substitutes.
